LOTTERY LICENSES

Many associations conduct raffles or draws during sanction tournaments as fund raisers.

It is necessary to get a license to run a raffle lottery where tickers are sold for a chance to win a prize at a draw and includes 50/50, elimination and calendar draws, break open tickets, etc.

If the prizes are over $50 000.00, you require a provincial license from the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO).

If the prizes are under $50 000.00, a municipal license is required.

You can obtain a blanket raffle license which covers multiple events within a fixed time period.

Check with your municipality regarding the application process.
